Special Rules

Pygmy Goats will be stalled in the Dairy Barn, except bucks, which will be in the Swine Barn (Livestock Pavilion)

1. All rules governing livestock in the General Rules and Regulations apply to this section.
2. For registered classes, goats must have original NPGA papers, no photocopies. NPGA rules to govern.
3. All animals should be tattooed or micro-chipped prior to the show. Tattoos must be legible or microchips readable and must match registration papers in order to record a win.
4. Wethers do not need "papers" to exhibit in this show. Only purebred pygmy goats may be shown. No crossbred animals will be accepted.
5. Unregistered animals (in wether and unregistered doe classes) will be accepted based on conformation, size, coloration, and markings meeting the NPGA breed standard and at the judge's discretion.
6. Only does and wethers can be shown in showmanship. No bucks allowed.

New Mexico Livestock Board and NMSF Health Requirements

•Proof of ownership (NMLB “Form 1” inspection certificate) must accompany the animal when traveling; this will assure that all requirements are met.

The following requirements must be met:

1. A NMLB APPROVED fair ear tag provided by the NMLB and a Form 1 inspection issued by the NMLB.

•All sexually intact sheep and goats must have an official USDA scrapie tag and/or breed registration tattoo, regardless of breed, no exceptions.

•All sexually intact goats must have a scrapie tag prior to TB testing. The USDA scrapie tag is the official identification required for TB testing goats.

•Sexually intact goats ≥6 months must have a negative TB test within 90 days of the exhibition.

•Due to the nature of tuberculosis and the low risk of susceptibility in sheep; sheep do not require a TB test.

•Accredited TB free herd status will be recognized.

Federal Sheep and Goat ID Requirements for Scrapie

Sheep and goats that are sexually intact and used for breeding, show and/or exhibition are required to have official individual animal and premises identification prior to sale or movement. For further information and information about rule changes, contact Mike Greenly, USDA, Albuquerque Office, (505) 761-3160.
